for review are summarized in points seem to deserve consideration—

(3) That the lands are a gift to his family (which is related to Mr Narayana Row), and the Patta thereof stands in the name of his ancestor one Venkatasharma charya, and that these Kaivaram lands are in the enjoyment of their family for 60 or 65 years past.

(4) That the house is his private property which he has constructed at a cost of Rs 1500/, that it is not mentioned in the bill of Mr Narayana Row, and that he should receive good his loss, if they take the house from him.

As regards this house, a perusal of the M.C's letter of 13.2.26, is solicited. The Merchant's objection in the matter, is referred to in para 2 of the (illegible)

3 Gopamma daughter of late Narayana Rau whose name is mentioned in the will, has petitioned stating that the temples is their private property & the deity is their tutelary deity — that the temple is well kept up & is being superintended by them as stated in the will, and prays that Govt may not interfere —

The case was heard on 6th April 1929.

The Petitioners Gururayachar and Gopamma were present and the latter was represented by her lawyer Mr. G.Vasudeva Rao.

O r d e r.

Gururayachar's contention that house No.128 in Devanhalli now occupied by him is his own property, is untenable and this is evident from his own statement dated 15th February 1922 before the Amildar and from the Donor D. Narayana Rao's application dated 27th June 1918 praying for the management by Government of the Sri Veera Anjaneyaswami Temple and all the properties endowed to it by him and also from the statement dated 16th January 1919 made by Narayana Rao before the Amildar. When these facts were pointed out to him Gururayachar represented that he had no objection to the khate of the house being made out in the name of the temple but that he may not be evicted from the house. All the six properties mentioned in the P.O. dated 24th April 1928 belong to the temple and there is no reason to re-consider the said order. Gururayachar is now the Archak of the temple and is reported to be residing in house No. 128. He may be permitted to occupy the house as the Archak of the temple so long as he is its Archak and so long also as his services as Archak are satisfactory.

Review-petitions praying that on a reconsideration of Government Order No. 1944-5/Muz.302-27-2 dated 24th April 1928 the ~~temple~~ of Sri Veeranjaneyaswamy built by the ancestors of the late Mr. Narayana Rao ~~and~~ at Devanhalli and its endowed properties, may be restored to their possession.

O r d e r .

This case was heard on 6th April 1929. The petitioners Gururayachar and Gopamma were present and the latter was represented by her Lawyer Mr. G. Vasudeva Rao.

Gururayachar's contention that house No. 128 in Devanhalli now occupied by him is his own property, is untenable and this is evident from his own statement dated 15th February 1922 before the Amildar and from the Donor D. Narayana Rao's application dated 27th June 1918 praying for the management by Government of the Sri Veera Anjaneyaswami temple and all the properties endowed to it by him and also from the statement dated 16th January 1919 made by Narayana Rao before the Amildar. When these facts were pointed out to him, Gururayachar represented that he had no objection to the Khate of the house being made out in the name of the temple but that he may not be evicted from the house. All the six properties mentioned in the Government order dated 24th April 1928 belong to the temple and there is no reason to re-consider the said order. Gururayachar is now the Archak of the temple and is reported to be residing in house No. 128. He may be permitted to occupy the house as the Archak of the temple so long as he is its Archak and so long also as his services as Archak are satisfactory.
